INVITATION

FUNDRAISING NIGHT

TOHU, THE DISTRICT AND YOU

TOHU invites you to a night where generosity is the byword. Help Saint-Michel families participate actively in their district's cultural life all the while contributing to the socio-professional integration program offered to the district's youth.

HELP US ACHIEVE OUR MISSION

CULTURAL DIVERSITY
In addition to being actively involved in the cultural field, TOHU has a mission that is divided in three elements: The circus, the Earth and the human.

It is a welcoming environment for the community of one of the less privileged district in Canada and a stepping stone for the youth of Saint-Michel district that benefit from the local hiring policy.

I hereby state that I have an arm's length relationship with La TOHU and that neither I nor anyone with whom I have a non-arm's length relationship stands to personally benefit in any form as a result of this donation. It is understood that a non-arm's length relationship between two individuals is defined as a blood relationship, a marriage or a common-law union. In addition, an organization and a natural or legal person are considered as having a non-arm's length relationship if the second controls the first.

An organization and a legal person are also considered as having a non-arm's length relationship if they are controlled by the same person or the same group of people. A non-arm's length relationship may also exist in certain situations depending on the circumstances. For example, a member, director or administrator of an organization could be considered as having a non-arm's length relationship with the organization. When in doubt about a relationship that could link me to the organization, I must notify the Conseil des arts de Montréal prior to making my donation. By donating through the Conseil des arts de Montréal's fiscal sponsorship program, I understand that the use of my donation is entirely at the discretion of the Conseil des arts de Montréal. I acknowledge that the Conseil des arts de Montréal has informed me of the eligibility criteria of its funding programs and that my donation can be used to support the organization that has solicited my donation or another organization in one or more disciplines recognized by the Conseil des arts de Montréal.
